

Hommebased

This spring, the fashion-forward man will trade his bright colors, lively prints and sleek shapes for the wind-torn of neutral tones and relaxed silhouettes.

All colors, from soft pastels to vivid primaries, are filling store shelves.

Men's footwear also goes light and brighter, with all neutrals, tans, greys, even white. Bright lewes show up in sporty styles.

Stanley Carrol, one of E-Town's best known forward thinkers, is proposing a related yet tailored silhouette, in soft-faced overlie fabrics.
